Many families leading thriving businesses at some point wonder about whether a Board of Advisors or Board of Directors would be valuable for their growth or a waste of time and energy. Often, business owners find their advisors and directors become an invaluable tool in their efforts to grow their business and plan for the future. In this program, Kristi will share the most common reasons and benefits behind the decision, and provide guidance on laying the groundwork for success. Join us for insight and discussion on:

- ❖ What's the role, purpose and benefits of a Board
- ❖ Board mechanics: How good boards work
- ❖ Common objections to creating a Board
- ❖ Where and when does a Board fit in
