Each of us play a role in our family....caretaker, disrupter, peacekeeper. Often those roles carry through to our work in a family business. In Untangling the Web, Part II, you will begin identifying the roles your family members played in the family and how aligned or misaligned that is with their role in the business. In this session, Nicole and Ken will:

- ❖ Review the concept of tension and the role it plays in the family and in the business
- ❖ Identify roles that exist in your family and business and explain the impact they have on your business
- ❖ Illustrate patterns that exist in your family and business that influence the organization both positively and negatively
- ❖ Identify symptoms in your organization and explain the roles they play in the family and business
